

Cleveland State University gift and estate planning news and stories.

A Life Shaped by Water—and a Legacy at Cleveland State University

Across a 40-year career in engineering and energy, and earlier as a championship swim coach at Cleveland State University, Dr. Lorry Wagner has focused on one principle: “building teams that achieve more together than individuals ever could achieve alone.” Read the full article here.

Radiance 2026 celebrates the best of us

For over a decade, Radiance has been one of the nights when the why of the work of the Cleveland State University Foundation becomes clear. It's not as though the focus is ever lost; it's that Radiance brings it sharply into view. Read about this year's Radiance Celebration here.

Estate Planning: A Practical Way to Plan for the Future and Leave Your Legacy

An estate plan is more than a legal safeguard, it reflects your values, your priorities, and the legacy you wish to leave behind. As you plan, consider your goals, your financial and personal priorities, and how you want to support both your family and the causes that matter most to you. Read more about estate planning.

More important news

More Impact, Less Tax: The Advantage of Giving Appreciated Assets
Preparing for Retirement—Building a Fulfilling Next Chapter

Have you considered including
Cleveland State University
in your estate plan?

For more information contact:
Constance M. Karapelou, BA '87, MA '02
Senior Director, Gift and Estate Planning
c.kapelou@csuohio.edu